Private scholarships are sources of financial aid that are awarded to students from businesses, entities, institutions, organizations or people not affiliated with Kansas State University.

Please list the private scholarships that you (the student) will be receiving during the 2023-2024 academic year. If the donor of the private scholarship requires proof of enrollment, you can obtain this by going to your KSIS Student Center, click Other Academics and select Enrollment Verification.

If you will be receiving private scholarships for the 2023-2024 academic year, please ask the donor of the private scholarships to conduct the following:

1. Make the check(s) payable to Kansas State University.
  - If a donor gives the check(s) directly to you (the student) and it is payable to both you and Kansas State University, you must endorse the check before submitting it to the K-State Office of Student Financial Assistance.
2. Mail the check(s) to the K-State Office of Student Financial Assistance at the address shown above.
3. Include your first and last name, as well as your Wildcat Identification Number on each check.
